PEACH'S NEET FEET hustle KINDNESS[®]

POWERED BY PEACH'S NEET FEET

On April 26th, we will have an special all-school assembly. Madison Steiner, a public speaker and Philanthropist, whose mission is to create a movement of selfless acts of giving will speak to the student body. In 2012, "Peach's Neet Feet," Madison's non-profit organization, was chosen as the winner of the Random Acts of Kindness Foundation's Extreme Challenge. She has also received the good Samaritan Real Heroes Award in 2012 for Northwest Mexico. Her mission is to inspire kindness with fierce passion and lead by example through her art. You can learn more about Madison's organization at <http://www.peachsneetfeet.com/about-pnf/>. If you would like to order a Hill School Hustle Kindness t-shirt for your child(ren) or yourself, here is the link - <http://hustlekindness.com/custom/>. (Please note that the green t-shirts are the Hill School t-shirts, there are other custom order shirts for other schools on this link as well.) The back of the t-shirt will also include "HILL." We encourage all students to wear their Hustle Kindness t-shirts to the assembly on April 26th. All orders should be place by March 13th to ensure delivery prior to the assembly. If you have questions please contact Kelly Johnson at kjohnson@thehillsschool.org.
