

JK Nuggets

January 5, 2017

This week in JK we...

- Went on a 3D shape hunt in the classroom and then organized our objects into a graph
- Began Writing Workshop! We got our own journal, in which we will practice writing and drawing matching illustrations. We used the sentence starter, "My favorite toy is_____." We had to complete the sentence by saying each word slowly and recording the sounds we heard. We focused on hearing and recording sounds which we have learned through Letter-of-the-Week.
- Made Snow Dough!
- Enjoyed hibernating in our new bear den!
