

JK Nuggets

This week in JK we...

- Performed Red Riding Hood for the first graders as part of our fairy tale study and "R" week!
- Practiced measurement by building two towers, one taller, one shorter. The children did this independently and used the vocabulary, "taller" and "shorter" to describe their towers in relation to one another.
- Swirled food coloring and shaving cream to make "rainbows" for "R" week!
- Learned about Tae Kwan Do from Ms. Kidder during assembly.
- Had a royal tea party. We had a great time dressing up as princesses, princes, knights, and other fairy tale characters!
