

First Grade Newsletter

May 22, 2015

Great Conversation Starters

What character puppets have you made? Tell me about the setting you have drawn. What problem are your characters going to solve?

What kind of a letter is l? Who are its friends? What about the letter m? Do you remember who m hangs out with at the ends of words?

What does Kevin Henkes do in his mice books to make the story sound interesting to the readers?

What did you name your airplane? What do you remember about Amelia Earhart?

Star of the Week

Mae has two German Shepherd dogs. She painted this zebra at her art class.

Reminders

Yearbook forms are due tomorrow.

Tomorrow is the track meet for 4th-8th grades. It is a regular school day for the Lower School. If you would like your child to attend the meet with you, please sign him/her out at 12:00. We will be in the classroom (or on the playground) eating lunch.

The book fair is this Tuesday through Thursday. Books will be sold on a first come, first served basis; there will be no orders taken. If you would like to help your child choose books, our scheduled times are Wed. at 1:30 and Thurs. At 8:30.

Tuesday, May 26 is our Udvar-Hazy Air and Space field trip. See attached.

Hill School Library

Please fill out the permission slip and return any books that are still at home so that your child can check out new ones for the summer. There are hundreds of wonderful books hoping to be taken home and enjoyed!