If you enjoy trick-or-treating with your children in the town of Middleburg, please consider bringing a couple of bags of candy to the front desk of Hill School before Halloween. It will be distributed to the Hill teachers who live in town and open their doors to the hundreds of children (many our own) who flock to Middleburg to celebrate. It is a small way that we can thank and help them for the big job they do in making it a fun evening for our children.

Pictures!

Class and individual pictures will be distributed to parents at their Parent-Teacher Conferences. Make-up day will be Tuesday, November 8th.

MISSION

The National Center for Missing & Exploited Children's mission is to help families, law enforcement and communities find missing children, reduce child sexual exploitation and prevent future victimization. As the nonprofit leading the fight to keep children safer from these crimes, NCMEC is dedicated to the victims and their families. Co-founded in 1984 by missing child advocates John and Revé Walsh after their son Adam's abduction and murder, NCMEC's role has grown to respond to evolving threats against our nation's children.

CHALLENGE

While NCMEC and the families and law enforcement it supports have seen amazing progress in child safety over the years, there is still more work to do. With more than 460,000 reports of missing children in the United States in a single year and a rise in cases of child sexual exploitation, the need for NCMEC's services continues to grow.

SOLUTION

NCMEC offers extensive resources in cases of missing and exploited children that include emotional and reunification assistance for families, the distribution of billions of missing child posters and the work of trained analysts and forensic artists. Drawing on decades of experience to help stop these crimes before they happen and to help people be prepared when they do, NCMEC also provides free education for law enforcement, families and children.

NCMEC is a 501 (c)(3) tax-exempt charity and is a publicly supported organization as defined in sections 509 (a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Internal Revenue Service Code. Federal ID #52-1328557. All contributions are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.
