

First Grade Buzz

March 2, 2017

Conversation Starters

What have you learned about Thomas Jefferson? What are love apples? What is the story behind them?

What special treat did the class earn this week?

What are you working on now in Writing Workshop? Why did you choose that?

Who is Sailor Sam? What does he do? What do you do when you sing the song? Can you show me?

Information

Let us now if your child will miss any part of next week. We have lots of stuff to send home! Absences impact our Cultural Study groups.

Also, let us know if your child wants any books for the break. Every first grader should read at least 15 minutes a day over the vacation.

The children did not have library today. It is rescheduled for next week.

Chloe rejoined the class today. She is going to start back with a few hours each day. She is looking great and the children were very gentle around her.

Star Student

Trey likes to go to Martha's Vineyard for vacation. He is a painter and he likes MineCraft.
