Ms. W. is reading a book about my ancestors...What bird am I?

Classroom Books

Please return all classroom books tomorrow! If you would like your child to check books out from the classroom that are in his/her reading zone, please let us know via email. Ms. Whitehead is happy to exchange books with your child throughout the summer (email me at kwhitehead@thehillschool.org)!

Library Books

ALL library books are due back to the library on June 6th. Any books not returned will be billed to your account. There are No Refunds. If your child does not have any outstanding books he/she may check out up to ten books for the summer from Hill's library with the signed permission slip located in Take Note!

End of the Year Clean Up

Please have your child bring a backpack everyday next week. Our goal is to send home materials in an organized way!

Strings Concert

Wednesday, June 6, third grade strings concert for the second graders. Second graders and their parents will listen to and ask questions about the instruments and the third grade string program. The concert begins at 3:15 in the music room and will be over by 4:00 dismissal! All parents and second graders are welcome to attend. Any second grader at Late Gates that afternoon will be taken to the concert and returned to Late Gates afterwards!

North Wales Farm

Many parents have asked about the gift bags that were given to the students at North Wales Farm...Jeanne Marie Tufts made the wonderful gift bags for each child and organized our wonderful trip! Many, many thanks!

Questions for your Second Grader this week:

Let's look at the Summer camps Hill offers to see what you would like to do this summer!

We should go to the strings concert on Wednesday together! What fun!

How do you know that every time that you add two odd numbers together the sum will always be even? Prove it!

Tell me about your informational project! How did your illustration work out?

Do you have classroom or library books here at the house or in the car?
