

SECOND GRADE NEWS

Bird Workshop, Hungry Birds, Arbor Day

Bird Language Workshop

Tomorrow second graders will enjoy an afternoon with Clint Corley of the Forest Floor Wilderness Programs and Sarah Hubbard, listeningtosilence.com and Science Enhancement Teach, will be coming to Hill through the generosity of the Weck Family. We will be spending nearly three hours outdoors on fields, in tall grasses, and around the tree line to learn about bird language and the birds natural environment. PLEASE be sure to send in an easy to carry water bottle and to dress your child in outdoor appropriate clothing—sneakers, socks, long pants or shorts, long sleeved t-shirts, and a hat. Please apply sunscreen and/or bug/tick repellent in the morning. We will be eating lunch at 11:30. It will be important to do a careful tick-check tomorrow afternoon/evening.

Drew Robitaille has offered to send in a squirt bottle of a natural homemade tick repellent tomorrow. Please let me know if your child is not allowed to use this product.

Questions for this week:

What song bird are you researching? What habitat does it live in and what does it eat?

How can you Hustle Kindness?

Show me how to use the tens and ones strategy to solve:

I hear that you are finishing the photo essay genre. I wonder what genre you will study next?

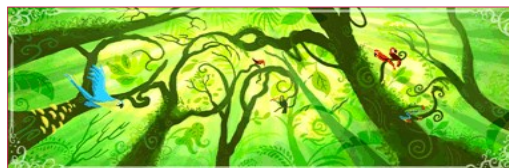

REMEMBER TO WEAR OUTDOOR APPROPRIATE CLOTHING TOMORROW!

Hungry Birds

With springtime comes hungry birds! We are researching song birds and seeing so many of them at our feeders! If you are able, please donate bird seed—cracked corn, black oil sunflower seeds, safflower seed, niger (thistle), and fruit blends. Please do not send in any seed mixes—that contain millet!
