RANCHER, FARMER, FISHERMAN

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 22, 2019

THE HILL SCHOOL PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

This Event is FREE to the Public (Pre-registration is encouraged)

Narrated by award-winning journalist Tom Brokaw, this film premiered at the 2017 Sundance Film Festival and debuted on the Discovery Channel in August 2017.

The Goose Creek Association and the Land Trust of Virginia bring you: Rancher, Farmer, Fisherman, the acclaimed film based on the book by Miriam Horn of the Environmental Defense Fund. Three rugged individualists explore how to preserve their way of life by stewarding the land and water on which we all depend. These conservation heroes learn to use the tools and methods created by law, academics, environmental groups, and their fellow outdoorsmen to forge alliances and continue to feed the world while enhancing the environment.

Rancher Dusty Crary builds a conservation easement alliance to protect the Rocky Mountain Front that his ranch depends on; farmer Justin Knopf rebuilds the fertility, biodiversity and resilience of his soil in the Kansas heartland, and fisherman Wayne Werner lobbies to establish reasonable fishing quotas that restock the Gulf.

Attention Hill Families!

Are you interested in growing your own produce in a fenced garden along with other local gardeners? Grow with us in the Gunnell Garden! Each year local Hill families are invited to enter their names in the Gunnell Garden lottery. If your name is drawn you will pay a small maintenance fee of $25 to use a raised bed in the garden for one growing season. If interested please keep in mind that gardening requires commitment which includes regular watering and maintenance! Email or call Martha Burke by February 25, 2019 to be entered in the Gunnell Garden drawing. I will notify gardeners by March 1, 2019 of the results!! 540-592-3001, or mburke@thehillschool.org

ACQUISITION UPDATE

Only three weeks until the Acquisition deadline! Do you know what you are donating? Stumped for an idea and a way to participate? PLEASE, stop by the Auction office...We HAVE IDEAS!

I was once approached by a new parent who said she had absolutely nothing to give to the auction. I asked her what she liked to do and she answered, “Run, I like to run.” So I asked if she would consider donating training lessons, perhaps for a marathon, or just helping someone get into a running routine. She agreed, and bingo, we had an item. YOU have a talent, let’s explore that talent.

There is a way for everyone to participate in the Auction. Parents can get together to purchase espresso machines, copper cookware, pasta makers with baskets of cooking materials, kitchen utensil baskets, ice cream makers ...eye appeal sells. It doesn’t have to cost a lot, if it looks appealing it is going to be a winner!

How about homemade goods? Jams, breads, organic items...think farm to table. How about Mother’s Day gifts? Something small that someone can take home that night?

Funding of items is always important. We are trying to put together several Live Auction items and also purchase experiences and getaways. Would you like to help us with these?

The list of possibilities is endless as are the ways to participate!

PLEASE let us hear from you! Watch this space next week for the Auction Participation Challenge!

Under the Big Top...Step Right Up!
