Life Reflecting Images

Hill School theater teacher Erin Coulter is featured in The Arlington Player's radio production of The War of the Worlds, airing on Halloween (October 31) at 6pm on WERA 96.7FM. The infamous original broadcast in 1938 caused panic when people thought the tele-play was an actual alien invasion. The Arlington Players received special permission to perform the original script with a gender-neutral cast, and it will be fun for all ages.

COMMUNITY THANKSGIVING SERVICE

The Community Thanksgiving Service, traditionally held at the Upperville Baptist Church on Wednesday evening before Thanksgiving, had to be cancelled this year. For many years the community has gathered at this special event to support the Churches of Upperville Outreach Program. The Program, which this year is helping more people than ever before, provides food throughout the holiday season to those families who need help in our community. Donations are welcome this year and we thank you for your support.

Please make checks payable to "Churches of Upperville Outreach Program" and mail to:
