OCTOBER 3, 2019

No School Monday, October 7th Teacher Professional - Development Day

Thank you to all who came out to help and have fun at the Country Fair. It was a great day that couldn't have happened without Bob Dornin and his team for giving us an area to play and perform, Emily Tyler for her organization of lunch, Hunt Lyman and his team of musicians, Susan McCaskey for her spin art expertise, our baking contest judges, the parents who set up and stayed late to clean up, Mr. Hart and the 4th graders for their help in setting up, and Helena Callaway-Jones, Kylie Igoe, Carly Goins, Zoe Korff, Violet Wright, and Bella White for face painting.

Lots of delicious entries in the Baking Contest this year and tough competition, but the winners are:

Most Creative - Brownies with legos -Margot St. Germain, Elizabeth Walker and Kaelyn Igoe, 4th grade

Most Original - Persimmon Pudding made with Hill School Persimmons - Adelaide Hottel, JK - Jill and Bryant

Best Taste - Pumpkin Creme Brûlée - Grace Kelly, 3rd grade - Amy and Rob Kelly

Best in Show - Butterscotch Pecan Cake - Joey Christensen, K - Stephanie Christensen

Ballet at Hill!

Hello Hill Families! I've been teaching the Irish dance classes at Hill school for the past two years. I'm considering starting a ballet class if there is any interest. I've been teaching dance (ballet, tap, jazz, lyrical, modern, Irish) in Loudoun County for 26 years! If your interested in a ballet class at Hill please reach out to me and we will work to make it happen! Stephania Sengpiehl (703)443-8858 or sas_crds@yahoo.com
