Evergreen Christian School is a covenant-model, high-school-only program. We are focused on partnering with Christian families who are ready to have their children engage in serious leadership development—spiritually, morally, and intellectually.

ECS teaches and encourages young people to establish a godly foundation for life, make wise choices, and positively impact culture.

Student organizations, fine arts, and athletics foster learning, complement the school's balanced curriculum, and offer students access to skills built outside their regular classrooms.

Have a Dickens of a Christmas in Middleburg presents two performances of A Christmas Carol (run time 30-40 minutes).

Journey back to 19th century London where the Ghosts of Christmas are paying a visit to Ebenezer Scrooge. The play comes to life with interaction from the audience and performances by local favorites (Hunt Lyman is Ebenezer Scrooge), as well as several New York actors. A Christmas Carol like you have never experienced before. Don't be a Humbug! Be there!

Directed by Erin Coulter
