Hill School is hosting a Celebration of Mary Woodruff's life in our amphitheater at 2pm on Sunday, April 24. All are welcome.

Mary was born in New York City and was educated there as well as in Florence, Italy. She received a BA from Shepherd University and an MFA from Antioch University. She, along with her husband Don, spent fifty-seven years in education with the last twenty-seven at Hill, where she was a beloved art teacher and librarian.

Hill School will be naming the Art Room in honor of Mary. We are also establishing the Mary MacLeod Woodruff Endowment which will support Hill's Studio Art program.

Please call the school (540-687-5897) if you have any questions

Derby Day Hats...

HILL STYLE

Sure, the Kentucky Derby is the biggest horse race of the year, but this special day in May has also become a day to showcase the prettiest, craziest, over -the-top hats of the year too!

We thought it could be fun to get our students involved in this great tradition!

If your student is interested in creating their own crazy, pretty, colorful, fantastical hat, then we be honored to showcase their hats at Grandparents/Special Friends Day and at the the "Day at the Races" Auction on May 7th.

If your child wants to participate but needs a hat, please email Kim Medica at kmedica@thehillschool.org
