Hill School is hosting a Celebration of Mary Woodruff's life in our amphitheater at 2pm on Sunday, April 24. All are welcome.

Mary was born in New York City and was educated there as well as in Florence, Italy. She received a BA from Shepherd University and an MFA from Antioch University. She, along with her husband Don, spent fifty-seven years in education with the last twenty-seven at Hill, where she was a beloved art teacher and librarian.

Hill School will be naming the Art Room in honor of Mary. We are also establishing the Mary MacLeod Woodruff Endowment which will support Hill's Studio Art program.
