Hot Jazz and Cool Popsicles on the lawn at Emmanuel Church

Two ingredients for a great family afternoon are mixing in Middleburg this coming Sunday. The ever-popular Dixie Rhythm jazz band will return to Emmanuel Church's Parish House porch to regale the audience with their toe-tapping repertoire of Dixieland favorites on Sunday, Sept. 25 at 3 p.m. They will be accompanied by The Little Pop Truck, which sells handcrafted popsicles.

The performance is part of the "At The Parish House" performance series at 105 E. Washington St., Middleburg. Chairs under tents will await on the lawn. If the weather looks dodgy, the concert will be held inside the Parish House.

To reserve a seat, call 540-687-6297. A $10 donation is suggested, but no one is turned away. Chocolate-dipped strawberry popsicle, anyone?

Participate in a youth-performed experiential art project from MacArthur Fellow Elizabeth Turk and gather as a community to learn about some of the plants that make our region special!

Free tickets will be available beginning August 29.

California artist Elizabeth Turk's social sculpture comes alive at the Oak Spring Garden Foundation (OSGF) with a focus on the next generation! Students 18 years of age and younger are invited to participate in the event, recreating the umbrella constellation in an evening that blends art, science, dance, music, photography, drone operations, videography, agriculture, and more!

OSGF will provide cookies and farm-fresh snacks grown on-site at the Bi-cultural Conservation Farm. Guests will learn about endangered native plant species and participate in a seed-saving demonstration with heirloom plants. Drone operators will be on site to engage the students with the art and technology of drones. Special take-home gifts will be available for K-12 students.
