TURN EVERY PAGE

TUESDAY, MAY 16 | Delight in the fascinating, intersecting stories of the iconic Pulitzer Prize-winning author Robert Caro and his editor of 50 years, the literary giant Robert Gottlieb, as they race to complete their life's work.

AN ETERNITY OF YOU AND ME

WEDNESDAY, MAY 17 | A touching and humorous tale of gender roles and two people's struggle to fulfil their dream of having a child - with the director herself in the female lead.

1946: THE MISTRANSLATION THAT SHIFTED CULTURE

THURSDAY, MAY 18 | A journey which unveils the mystery of how theology, history, culture, and politics led to a Biblical mistranslation, the man who tried to stop it, and the impassioned academic crusade of the LGBTQIA+ Christian community driven to discover the truth.

WORRIERS AND WARRIORS

FRIDAY, MAY 19 | One man's experience with Parkinson's Disease is chronicled, diving into his daily life and watching him grapple with the rigors of hallucinations and fear of the unknown. As Keith fights his incurable disease, his love of music plays a constant tune of hope against his everyday struggles. This documentary asks, are we defined by our diseases? And in the end, are we all more similar than different, diseases or not?

LOVE, CHARLIE: THE RISE AND FALL OF CHARLIE TROTTER

SATURDAY MAY 20 | Charlie Trotter was a rock star among the first celebrity chefs revolutionizing American cuisine, but his meteoric rise came at a price. Featuring Grant Achatz, Emeril Lagasse, and Wolfgang Puck.
