DISCUSSION OF SCREENAGERS

with Treavor Lord, Christie Lovelette, & Hunt Lyman
in the Kelso Family Alumni Room

Thank you to all who came out to help and have fun at the Country Fair. It was a great day that couldn't have happened without Bob Dornin and his team for giving us an area to play and perform, Emily Tyler for her organization of lunch, Hunt Lyman and Peyton Tochtermann for the music and emcee duties, Alex Warthen for chairing and organizing the crafts and activities, Sarah Dornin/Will Nisbet/Phill Bradshaw our baking contest judges, the parents who set up and stayed late to clean up, and our 8th Graders for face painting and crazy hair.

AIR & SCARE

OCT. 29
10:00AM -
3:00PM

Join us for our annual Halloween event at the Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center to explore the spooky side of air and space.

This year, the event will take place both inside and outside at the Museum. Free timed-tickets are required for the outside activities. Reserve your tickets for the outdoor activities now.

National Air & Space Museum
Steven F. Udvar-Hazy Center

Air & Scare will take place rain or shine. Some outside activities may be curtailed, but many will scream on. Bring rain protection if it's gloomy. We will also host an online costume contest you can enter from home or from the event. This is your chance to win some extra Halloween treats.

Get Ready for "Halloween Songs & Stories"!

All Hallows Eve is creeping up on us. Give your costume a test run at the Fourth Annual "Halloween Songs & Stories" in Middleburg, Sunday, October 23 at 3 p.m. It's part of Emmanuel Church's "At The Parish House" performing arts series at 105 East Washington St., Middleburg.

Join ghouls, goblins, superheroes, unicorns, you name it, for Halloween silliness, fun songs and spooky stories (Headless Horseman, "Monster Mash," and so much more). Hear some Hill Schoolers read ghost stories! Everyone in costume gets a bag of Halloween treats and can join a noisy indoor parade.

Reservations are not required but are encouraged. To reserve seats, call 540-687-6297. There's a $10 suggested donation, but no one will be turned away. Join the party and definitely wear your Halloween costume!
